Elements Conference, "Women on Water"

Dear Artists,

I am writing to you about the fabulous, incredible, WCA first eco-arts conference held Berkeley, in conjunction with a WCA San Francisco art tour and juried show. It all happens this summer June 23 - 26. This conference has all the stuff you want when you go to an art gathering. Come to the David Brower Center on Friday, June 25th and you can:

- make & trade art when you are there with other artists
- hear top, news-worthy eco-artist activists talk about their drive and focus,
- enjoy live action art
- watch artistic, award-winning video shorts
- eat a scrumptious earth-friendly lunch (included in the ticket price)

Still not convinced?!? Watch this 2-minute video of Priscilla describing what Eco-Arts is or this 30 second video showing the David Brower Center.

The conference, SOMArts juried art show and art bus tour is on separate days. If you are interested in the whole tamale (click here for a printable conference page). You can talk about it on the blog site, twitter, or facebook page. We even negotiated a gorgeous, spacious, modern hotel for $129/double-double room, located a few short blocks to a BART station if you want to stay up in the city during the 3 days of events. They will also give you this rate 3 days prior and 3 days after the conference!

Please let write to president@sbawca.org are coming to the conference and if you are interested in a hotel room.

Best,

Susan Kraft
